Biographies

Executive Secretary

Dr. Kathrin Meyer

Dr. Kathrin Meyer has been the Executive Secretary of the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance (IHRA) since 2008. Dr. Meyer has an MA in Educational Science and a PhD in History from the Technical University Berlin, specializing in denazification and re-education in Germany after 1945.

From 2000-2004 she was a Senior Research Fellow at the Center for Research on Antisemitism, Technical University Berlin and in 2003 a research fellow at the Center for advanced Holocaust studies at the US Holocaust Memorial Museum. In 2004 Dr. Meyer was appointed Adviser on Antisemitism Issues at the OSCE Office for Democratic Institutions and Human Rights in Warsaw, Poland, where she was responsible for designing and implementing a program aimed at combating antisemitism and strengthening Holocaust education and remembrance in the (then) 56 participating OSCE States. In her role as Executive Secretary of IHRA, Dr. Meyer implements the priorities of the IHRA Chair and IHRA's 31 Member Countries, and coordinates - together with her colleagues at the IHRA Permanent Office - the activities of its member and observer countries, as well as the projects and work of the organization's expert Working Groups and specialized committees.

IHRA Chair

Ambassador Georges Santer

A distinguished career diplomat, Ambassador Santer graduated with a Master's Degree in Philosophy (History and German language) from the Diplomatic Academy in Vienna and has been working for the Luxembourg Ministry of Foreign and European Affairs ever since. Among others, he has served at the Embassies in Paris, Madrid, Beijing, Vienna and Berlin, and from 2004 to 2008 was Ambassador to the Holy See. Since 2016 Ambassador Santer has been the Head of Luxembourg's Delegation to the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance. He speaks Luxembourgish, French, German, English, Italian and Spanish.

Honorary Chairman

Professor Yehuda Bauer

Professor Yehuda Bauer has been the Honorary Chairman of the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance since 2005, having previously served as its Academic Advisor from 1998 until 2005. Professor Bauer holds a BA Honours degree from Cardiff University and a PhD from the Hebrew University. He is Professor Emeritus of History and Holocaust Studies at the Avraham Harman Institute of Contemporary Jewry at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem and Academic Advisor to Yad Vashem. As one of the leading scholars on the Holocaust, Professor Bauer's work with the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance has been a major contribution to the organization's goal of promoting Holocaust research, remembrance and education worldwide. Professor Bauer is fluent in Czech, Slovak, German, Hebrew, Yiddish, and English.
